

To: HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL.

FROM: Dave Maroney, Director of Economic Development and Planning.

SUBJECT: Vacation of Stoughton Street.

DATE: August 13, 2014.

BACKGROUND.

A Petition requesting the vacation of a part of Stoughton Street has been received – see the accompanying map that illustrates the right-of-way to be vacated. Staff have reviewed the request and feels that there is no need to retain the right-of-way to accommodate construction of a new street in this area. Prior to vacating a public street the City Council must first conduct a public hearing with 14-days published notice and 10-days mailed notice – notice has been published and mailed.

REQUESTED COUNCIL ACTION.

Following the public hearing and if appropriate, the City Council is asked to approve the Resolution that vacates Stoughton Street between First and Second Street.
