Greetings Cannon Falls City Council-

The Minnesota Jaycees Charitable Foundation has been contacted by Joe Lennartson of Chuggers Bar and Grill regarding the possibility of our organization running charitable gambling at his establishment. We have met with Joe and agreed that we would like to go forward with this endeavor. Therefore, we are asking the Cannon Falls City Council to approve our Premises Permit Application allowing us to run charitable gambling at Chuggers Bar and Grill.

Our Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization with the primary purpose of providing financial support for JCI Minnesota (previously known as Minnesota Jaycees), its member chapters throughout the state, and its affiliated organizations. JCI Minnesota is a young-persons leadership training organization providing leadership opportunities and growth through community service and involvement. In addition, our Foundation supports charitable organizations and activities within the cities in which we perform charitable gambling.

Myself, as Gambling Manager, and Tracey Biegert, our CEO, plan to be in attendance at your Tuesday November 7 meeting, and would appreciate having our request added to the agenda to be discussed and voted upon. We look forward to meeting you, answering any questions you might have, and working with you to enhance our organization, your city, and Chuggers Bar and Grill.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
